JILL MOSER (b. 1956)

Jill Moser is an American artist who lives and works in New York City. Moser's paintings, drawings, and prints consist of dynamic applications of pigment that interact with intentionally left blank spaces to form a visual language that exhibits passion and restraint at the same time. These abstractions are carefully put together; Moser prepares the surface, underpaints, meditatively applies and rubs away, leaving gestural ghosts beneath striking colors. Moser has had a critically acclaimed artistic career, her work has been exhibited in galleries and museums throughout the United States and has been featured in prominent collections, including The Metropolitan Museum of Art, The Museum of Modern Art, The Museum of Fine Arts Houston, The National Gallery of Art, The Yale University Art Gallery, The Fogg Art Gallery and The National Library of France.
