TEGAN BROZYNA ROBERTS (b. 1984)

A native of Philadelphia, Tegan Brozyna Roberts is an artist who is fascinated by her surroundings. Her collages feature painted pieces of paper suspended in tightened thread, a representation of her mission to find peace and balance in the world. By simplifying colors and shapes that she observes in her everyday life, Brozyna Roberts strives to gain a fuller understanding of her environment. She also draws inspiration from her family's history in textile, which is represented through the motif of cotton thread in her work. She is currently living and working in Brooklyn, New York.
